The Wild Wild West! ages 5-8, 9 a.m.-12 p.m.

Investigate and discover what put El Paso on the map as one of the wildest towns in the west. Join us as we find out more about the cowboys and revolutionaries that walked the streets of this border town, the railroads, the native tribes, the animals, and the plant life.

El Paso: Back in Time ages 9-12, 9 a.m.-12 p.m.

Students will learn about famous gunfighters walking the streets of El Paso, learn about its unique plant and wild life. Students learn the importance of maintaining a relationship between El Paso and its environment by means of preserving it. They will learn about the development of El Paso as a community and how it thrived from the 19th to the 21st century as well as walk the streets of El Paso to observe and interpret how they feel that El Paso has changed through scenery and architecture Lights, Camera, Action! ages 5-8, 1-4 p.m.

Saloons, cantinas, vaudeville shows, and the theater allowed El Paso to be a hub of talent for the southwest! Come explore the history of entertainment in our wild border town and identify the buildings and areas that graced the big screen.

Walking in El Paso's Footsteps ages 9-12, 1-4 p.m.

Throughout the week, students will learn about El Paso's humble beginnings and explore the unique culture that surrounds them. This includes learning about the unique relationship between the Sister Cities of El Paso and Ciudad Juarez and how the development of the University of Texas at El Paso shaped the city. Students will also learn about their family ties with the city through the past and how they may impact the continued growth of the Sun City.
